

Zoe Nicolaou is an Oral and MaxilloFacial Surgeon. Dr. Nicolaou joined the Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery Clinic in Athens as a Postgraduate Fellow for 2 years after graduating from the Dental School of Athens University in 1992, “first in class” and she recited the oath at the graduation ceremony receiving the reward of Colgate Palmolive. She specialized in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery in Rabin Medical Center of Tel-Aviv University- Israel and she received the title of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon in 2000. She has since been practicing Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery in Limassol, Cyprus.

Her special interest is in Orthognathic Surgeries and Individuals with cranio facial syndromes and facial deformities. This is why she cooperates with the Cyprus Center for Clefts & Facial Deformities (MEDICLEFT), where a team of specialists monitor and treat patients with similar problems.

Dr. Nicolaou joined the Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery Clinic in Athens as a Postgraduate Fellow for 2 years after graduating from the Dental School of Athens University in 1992, “first in class” and she recited the oath at the graduation ceremony receiving the reward of Colgate Palmolive.

She is holding since November 2014 a Vice Presidency position at the ICMFS (International College of Maxillo Facial Surgery) and she is the founder and first president of the Cyprus Association of Oral and Maxillo Facial Surgery (CYAOMS)

In 2015 she hosted in Limassol, her home town, the 29th World Congress of the ICMFS (International College of Maxillo Facial Surgery).

Furthermore, she serves as councilor of the Republic of Cyprus at the International Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons (IAOMS) and she is an active member of the European Association of Cranio-Maxillofacial Surgery (EACMFS). Also, she actively participates as a keynote speaker in several congresses all around the world with scientific presentations. She also holds a number of publications and she is involved as a clinical tutor of the Medical school of the University of Nicosia in Collaboration with the St. George’s University of London.

Dr. Zoe Nicolaou won the “Cyprus Business Woman of the Year award 2018” at the 12th Cyprus Business of the Year Award amongst other notable women from Cyprus. She is married and she has 3 beautiful children.